Dear Mr. and Mrs. Pierrot,

As soon as William opened his bags yesterday afternoon he showed me the handsome bar spoon which Mr. Pierrot was so kind and generous as to give him when he was in Lima. I was delighted with it! And we were both touched by the kind thought that prompted you to give it to him on our anniversary.

I hope that you will like Lima. From what William has told me about it so far, I gather it would be quite difficult to be dissatisfied with such a gay and interesting place. Needless to say, I wish very much that I could have seen Peru with William- perhaps we may see it together on some future anniversary! If so, I hope you'll be there, also.

With many thanks,
