The United States Passport Agent
Miami, Florida

Sir:

This letter is being presented in connection with the passport application of Laura Philinda Jones, who wishes to travel from the United States to Nigeria. Her previous passport is probably on file with the Department of State in Washington.

The writer is American Vice Consul at Lagos, and I am anxious to have Miss Jones obtain a passport to come here so that we can be married. I have been assured by the Nigerian Immigration officials that there will be no difficulty regarding her admission into this country.

Although her transportation will be difficult to arrange due to prevailing conditions, it is necessary to have official assurance that a passport can be issued before any arrangements can be made.

As I understand that cases of this type are usually referred to the Department, I will not include any further statements as to the reasons which may be advanced in favor of issuing a passport to my fiancée. If there is any additional information which you would like to have, please let me know. Communications should be sent to the Department for transmission by air mail pouch to Lagos.

You may be sure that any assistance which you may be able to render Miss Jones will be sincerely appreciated.

Very truly yours,

William L. Krieg
